

Lincoln on Professionalism

February 24, 2010 • The Capital City Club • 7 Harris Street
9:00a - 12:15p • Registration at 8:30a • 3 CLE/1 E/2 TP/1 P

"Resolve to be honest at all events and if in your own judgment you cannot be an honest lawyer, resolve to be honest without being a lawyer."

"Never stir up litigation. A worse man can scarcely be found who does this.... A moral tone ought to be infused into the profession which should drive such men out of it."

*"The leading rule for the lawyer, as for the man of every other calling, is diligence. Leave nothing for tomorrow which can be done today."
— A. Lincoln*

Using an engaging documentary-style format (think Ken Burns), Lincoln's exemplary qualities of legal and personal professionalism will come to life -- the qualities he demonstrated day in and day out in his law practice. This documentary will be coupled with a discussion among a stellar panel of judges and lawyers to provide a current and modern context to the model of professionalism that Lincoln provides.
